93 acts funded

17 acts that required no funding, but we provided promotional materials

$47,745 amount of money spent on acts
1,633 participants

24 countries that participated in AMOK
$39,800 raised for the Jacmel Children’s Center

The JCC officially opened in March

14 kids living at the JCC by the end of the year
5th Year Anniversary Party

FIVE!

Celebrated 5 years of kindness with a special presentation and livestream of Friday Night Karaoke at the Official Supernatural Convention in Secaucus, NJ.
Launched a project in Nicaragua to support the Free High School (FHS) of San Juan del Sur. The FHS is dedicated to empowering adults and older teens around SJdS through education.

$179,190 raised

26 (+1 drawing winner) volunteers who qualified for the trip

Some facts about the trip:

- Visited Barrio Planta Project and decided to sponsor their next theater workshop
- Went out to a rural community to help construct EcoStoves and BioSand water filters, both of which address critical health issues for rural families
25 submissions

Winner: Christa McAuliffe School students Kaylee Hutchinson, Angela Vitale, Karishma Patel, and Malaika Aziz of Team Phrag Attack

As part of their school's student-created STEM initiative, Project Reservoir, the team of middle school students spent the past school year working on their own scientific experiments and conservation projects, which included an effort to reduce the local Phragmite (perennial wetland grasses often found near reservoirs and marshes) population.
63 submissions

Public vote winner: Katie Dunbar

With the help of her school teachers and administrators, Katie formed an anti-bullying student group called the Take a Stand club as a way to help struggling peers who were seeking a safe space to talk.

Staff vote winner: Cristal Logothetis

Founder of a group called “Carry the Future,” whose mission it is to provide baby carriers to Syrian refugees fleeing their home in search of safety, Cristal and her peers have been able to distribute some 6,000 carriers since the group’s launch in September 2015.
Financials

Our management and general expenses were exceptionally low once again, representing only 5.3% of total revenue and 8.2% of total expenses. This means that, of total expenses during 2015, 91.8%, approximately $287,000, was expended to spread kindness around the world.

- $479,179 contributions, gifts, grants
- $2,192 miscellaneous
- $481,371 total revenue
- $35,599 travel & convention expenses
- $33,038 operational & office expenses
- $26,481 contract & professional service fees
- $216,427 total awards & grants
- $69,473 acts of kindness
- $1,587 other
- $3,000 Class Act
- $142,367 Dreams to Acts
- $312,460 total expenses
- $168,911 net increase in net assets